FELIX DIAZ UNDER ARREST

General is Accused of Shooting Mexican at Havana.

RESULT OF QUARREL IN PLAZA

Refugee Was Stabbed Several Times in the Neck and Slightly Wounded—Man Shot May Die.

HAVANA, Nov. 7.—General Felix Diaz was arrested here today and accused of shooting Pedro Guerrero, the young Mexican wounded by a bullet during last night's altercation, in the course of which Diaz was wounded slightly.

General Diaz is said to have handed the revolver to one of his companions after he had shot and seriously wounded Guerrero. Guerrero stabbed Diaz with a knife. His condition is critical.

All that Diaz could tell about the incident was that he and his companions were listening to music played by a band in the Malecon promenade, when the electric lights were suddenly extinguished and he was attacked. He said he was unable to account for what afterward happened.

Story of Quarrel.

General Diaz, with Cecilio Oca, a fellow fugitive from Mexico, and Luis Malda, were listening to a band concert in the Malecon when a group of Mexicans, among them a young Mexican, Pedro Guerrero, passed the Diaz party. General Diaz is said to have made some unpleasant remarks about the followers of Carranza, whereupon Guerrero went to the sea wall where other Mexicans were seated and informed them of General Diaz' alleged insult.

The entire group came back to where Diaz and his friends were conversing and hot words were exchanged. Guerrero sprang at Diaz with a knife, wounding him. The two struggled for a moment together when a policeman seized Guerrero by the shoulders. Someone drew a revolver and fired, the bullet struck Guerrero.

Diaz was taken to a hospital, but it was found that his wounds were superficial. Guerrero is seriously wounded. The entire party was placed under arrest. General Felix Diaz made his escape from Mexican soil on October 27, taking refuge on board the United States gunboat Wheeling at Vera Cruz. He was transferred to the Louisiana, and from there to the battleship Michigan, later being put aboard the steamer Esperanza, which reached Havana on Monday last.

As long ago as Oct. 15, the Cuban government was warned that a band of Mexican conspirators were planning to kill General Diaz, who was then on his way from Europe to Mexico. The Cuban government took precautionary measures and General Diaz was closely guarded when he landed at Havana on his homeward voyage. There were rumors of other plots against his life when it was learned that he was to return to Havana. A late Vera Cruz dispatch reported General Diaz had left behind there a crowd of several thousand persons sent up a cheer. There was a hearty response from the members of the crew, who lined the rails of the Chester.

Fleece from Vera Cruz.

General Diaz was the candidate of the Mexican national democratic party for the presidency. He had been sent out of the country by General Huerta as head of the special Mexican mission to Japan, but returned to carry on his campaign. When he arrived at Vera Cruz on October 22 he found the situation so threatening that he did not dare to continue to the Mexican capital. General Huerta sent him an invitation to come to Mexico City and even dispatched an envoy to induce Diaz to accept the invitation. He declined to do so and finally made his way to a hotel adjoining the American consulate, from which he landed on the Wheeling.

General Felix Diaz is a nephew of General Porfirio Diaz, the former president of the republic. A year ago he headed a revolutionary movement at Vera Cruz, which was promptly suppressed. He headed the revolt against President Madero in Mexico City last February, which ended in the overthrow of Madero and the assumption of the presidency by General Huerta.

General Diaz looked downhearted when interviewed in prison today.

He showed two slight stab wounds in his neck, just behind the ear, as the result of his encounter last night. He said he suffered no pain.

Diaz Describes Attack.

Describing the attack on him, Diaz said: "I was sitting in the park listening to the concert with friends. Suddenly I was struck by an unidentified man. I defended myself with an umbrella. During the scrimmage one shot was fired—I don't know by whom. A man, who later was identified as Pedro Guerrero, fell to the ground and a policeman took him to a hospital.

"I was taken before a judge and at 4:30 o'clock this morning placed under provisional arrest. I know nothing further of the incident, but I believe the attack on me was premeditated.
"I have nothing to say with regard to my future plans. I was waiting here for Mexican developments and now will be compelled to stay until this case has been cleared up. Several friends called at the prison this morning and offered to testify that I am innocent of the shooting of Guerrero."

Several Versions of Affray.

Many contradictory versions of last night's incident are current. It is not known exactly how the affray started. Some say General Diaz provoked Carranza's followers, while others declare that Diaz was suddenly attacked by his enemies.

Julio Ortiz Casanova, a Cuban lawyer, said today he would petition the court for the indictment of General Diaz for manslaughter in case of Guerrero's death, adding that several Mexican and four Cuban witnesses would testify that they saw Diaz and his friends attack Guerrero.

Guerrero accuses Diaz of being the assailant. He is a young newspaper man and a strong adherent of General Carranza. He was shot in the back, the bullet penetrating the abdomen. He was operated on this afternoon. Several Havana newspapers recently published a statement that the Mexican charge d'affaires, Domingo Najera, had accused the Cuban police of favoring friends of General Carranza. Senor Najera this morning called at the Cuban state department and denied having made such a statement.

Luis Angelia Malda, a friend of General Diaz who was with him at the time of the affray, also was arrested.

Men Given Place.

The program for today gave the men a chance to talk and W. E. Hardy of Lincoln, J. C. F. McKasson of Lincoln, W. L. Locke of Lincoln, J. W. Thomas of Alliance, Rev. A. B. Schrieffer of University Place, Frank A. Harrison and one or two others addressed the convention.

W. E. Hardy, a Lincoln business man believed that $50,000 would be needed to carry on the work of organization and campaign. He advised that the amount be divided equally, one-half for the state campaign and the other half divided among the counties. He would have Douglas county raise $5,000, Lancaster, $2,000; Cass, $200; Otoe, $25; Gage, $200; Saunders, $450, and other counties in proportion to their population.

He said Douglas county had already come to the front in amount of money pledged and hoped other counties would follow suit.

Last year $2,965 was raised and $1,806.83 paid out, the largest item being the salary of Mrs. F. A. Harrison, who was paid $75. Stenographic expense was next in the amount of $23 and office expenses of $25.30 followed.

old officers Chosen.

All the old officers were elected on the first ballot with the exception of Mrs. M. M. Claffin, who refused to be a candidate because of her work as an officer of the Women's Christian Temperance union, which took all the time she could spare and Mrs. John N. Baldwin of Omaha was elected second auditor in her place.

Although a stormy night the city auditorium was comfortably well filled in the evening to hear the address of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, who spoke on "Woman Suffrage, Essential, Just and Expedient." Dr. Shaw arrived from Omaha where she spoke before the State Teachers' association.

BIG TROLLEY STRIKE SETTLED

The 2,000 members of the Indiana National Guard, who were called to Indianapolis yesterday on order of the governor, will be dispatched to their homes stations as soon as possible. The soldiers were not called on to do duty.
The strike which began last Friday has resulted in four deaths and injuries to a hundred or more people, including several police officers. Yesterday when the city quieted down the downtown streets have been the scenes of almost continuous riot. A large amount of damage has been done to property. Trolley were cut, car windows broken and the windows of the Louisiana street car barn, where the company had quartered about fifty imported strikebreakers, were smashed.

Thomas Says Schools Are Creating Snobs

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—Prof. W. W. Thomas of Springfield, Mo., told the state convention of Missouri teachers here today that the present system of education was creating snobs and snobbery.

He said that the trend of education was toward the professions and that this tended to inculcate the idea that manual labor is degrading. He urged industrial education and manual training.
A resolution favoring simplified spelling was adopted this afternoon by a vote of 281 to 266.

HUERTA FORMALLY DECLINES TO MEET WILSON'S DEMANDS

Intimation that Huerta is about to answer the petitions made early in the week or that O'Shaughnessy is desirous of advising with Lind on additional steps to be taken under his instructions.

Under orders from Rear Admiral Fletcher, commanding the squadron in the Gulf of Mexico, the battleship Now Hampshire is steaming to Vera Cruz from Tampico. With its arrival eight American men-of-war will be assembled off Vera Cruz. Officials here gave no reason for sending the New Hampshire. Admiral Fletcher gave the order without instructions from the Navy department. The gunboat Annapolis arrived today at Santa Rosalia, lower California, where it is guarding, at the request of the French foreign office, a band of French colonists.

Cabinet Members Named.
The cabinet met today for the first time in several weeks. All the secretaries except Garrison and Wilson, and Attorney General McMeekin, attended. It was understood that at the instance of the president one or two members who had planned to be out of the city cancelled their engagements to attend. The latest news dispatches, telling of John Lind's return to Mexico City, were taken into the meeting, and Secretary Bryan carried a large envelope of State department dispatches.

When the cabinet meeting broke up the members were shown news dispatches from Mexico City, saying Huerta's formal reply would be a complete denial of the right of the United States to demand his retirement, but, without exception, none would comment. All admitted that the Mexican situation had been discussed, but silence was the rule.

American Fisherman Captured.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 7.—Charged with poaching in Mexican waters, William H. Potter, a fisherman from San Pedro, is in jail in Ensenada, lower California, awaiting disposition of his case in the territorial courts. Potter, in a telegram to his wife in San Diego, declares he was captured by a patrol boat used by the holders of the fish concession on the lower California coast, while he was six miles from land, and consequently on the high seas. The United States consul at Ensenada is said to be investigating the case.

SCOUT CRUISER CHESTER SAILS

Warship Bound for Vera Cruz Carries Field Guns.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The scout cruiser Chester, prepared for any emergency, sailed from the Philadelphia navy yards at noon today for Vera Cruz. There was no ceremony in connection with its going.

The cruiser was expected to sail at 9 a. m., but a slight delay in the arrival of fresh meals detained it. When all was ready at 11:35 o'clock orders were given by Captain William A. Moffatt to cut loose and, as the ship began to move, a crowd of several thousand persons sent up a cheer. There was a hearty response from the members of the crew, who lined the rails of the Chester.

It took some time for the cruiser to get straightened out in the Delaware, but as soon as its nose was pointed down stream, it put on half speed and was off. Further down the river full speed was ordered and the Chester was soon lost to the base.

Before sailing, Captain Moffatt said he expected to reach his destination some time Monday night.

The scout cruiser, which is equipped with the most powerful wireless apparatus on any ship in the American navy, is heavily loaded with provisions for three months and a large supply of ammunition. There is also aboard machine and field guns.
